BARC Developmental Services

is a non-profit agency in Bucks County, PA, dedicated to providing quality services and programs to men, women, and children with intellectual disabilities and Autism.

Our programs include:

Early Intervention for children from birth to five years of age;

Residential programs that support adults in various living arrangements;

Vocational Services which offer training, employment, and income in two production facilities and through the Joint Opportunities for Business and Society (J.O.B.S.) program.

In addition, Vocational Services offers a Seniors program for the older adult of retirement age who wishes to remain active, a full day Adult Daycare program for adults who are not ready for a work production setting, and a training program for Adults with Autism.

Thank you for your support.
