BARC Developmental Services is a non-profit human service agency located in Bucks County, which offers programs and services to men, women, and children with intellectual disabilities and Autism.

Our programs include:

Early Intervention, which offers home-based services form children birth through two years of age, and a center-based program for children ages three through five;

Residential Services that support adults in various living arrangements;

Vocational Services which offer training, employment, and income in two production facilities and through the Joint Opportunities for Business and Society (J.O.B.S.) program. Additionally, vocational offers a Seniors program for the older adult of retirement age who wishes to remain active, and a full day Adult Training program for adults who are not ready for a work production setting. We also provide a program designed especially for adults with Autism at our Warminster facility.

Your sponsorship of the Ivyland Invitational for BARC Developmental Services supports our continuing effort to present a high quality service to our community.

Sponsorship Levels

The Ivyland Invitational for BARC Developmental Services

is a concentration of efforts to promote a great day of golf at Five Ponds Golf Club in Warminster, while generating a profit that directly supports the programs and services that we provide to over 700 adults and children with intellectual disabilities and Autism here in the Bucks County region.

You can help make a difference in their lives.

The event is scheduled for June 24, 2019 and the agency is now accepting Sponsorships. There are several different sponsorship levels as described within this brochure. Every dollar raised is significant and greatly appreciated. The overall success of this event will depend on the support of our community.

Please consider sponsoring the Ivyland Invitational for BARC Developmental Services
